MARRIED AT LOUISVILLE

Miss Ida McKee Married to Traveling Man in Louisville Monday Afternoon.

At the residence of Mrs. Samuel McKee, Third avenue, Louisville, Miss Ida McKee and Mr. J. D. Van Atta were married Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Miss McKee is the granddaughter of Col. James McKee, the daughter of the late R. M. McKee, the niece of Judge H. Clay McKee, and is one of the most popular and attractive young ladies of the county, with a vivacious disposition and most pleasing personality, with enough of this world's goods at her command to keep the wolf a respectable distance from the front veranda. Belongs to two of the oldest and best known families in the State, her mother being the daughter of Mr. James Anderson and the niece of Mr. G. W. Anderson. Mr. Van Atta, the lucky groom, has been once before married, is a traveling man, with a good business, a resident of Ohio, well and favorably known in Cincinnati, and has been a frequent visitor to Mt. Sterling, where every one whom he has met formed of him a favorable opinion. We are informed, after a wedding trip, they will make their home in Lexington, Ky.

We regret to lose such high class individuals, but our loss will be others gain, and we most heartily commend the happy couple to any community in which they may cast their lot.

LARGE CROWD HERE MONDAY

Court Day Crowd in This City Monday the Largest One for Several Months.

Monday was County Court Day in this city and the largest crowd for several months thronged the streets and our merchants had a splendid day. There were lots of mules, horses and cattle on the market.

About 2,000 cattle on the market, a good run for February. The quality was fairly good. The offerings were light weight. Trade while not brisk was steady. Prices were strong considering every thing. The best sold as high as 7½ cents but bulk of sales around 7 cents. Heifers at 6 to 6½ cents with a few fancy ones that were fat at 7 cents. Cows at 5 to 5½ cents with canners at 6 to 5 cents. Oxen at 6 to 6½ cents. Most of the steers sold by the head so it was difficult to get sales. We got a few that crossed the scales.

SALES

Sam Keeton sold 28 680 lb. steers to Mr. Skidmore, of Fayette county, at 7½ cents, they were extra good; Mike Wilson sold 14 750 lb. steers to a party from Millersburg at 7 cents; Sam Keeton sold 25 550 lb. yearlings to a Mr. Brown, of Clark county, at $41.00 per head; Geo. Halsey sold 9 950 lb. cows and heifers to Gay Wilson at 6½ cents; Many other sales made that we did not get but at about the prices quoted above.

A few sales of mules. One pair of good heavy 16 hand mare mules at $425, another pair at $400, but these sales were exceptions.

ANOTHER HUNG JURY

The suit of W. Taylor Fitzpatrick to have his property restored to him after having been in the hands of a committee for several years, resulted, for the second time in a hung jury. It was reported on the streets that the jury stood 11 to 1 to restore him his property but upon investigation we find that the jury stood 8 to 4. There is over $100,000 worth of property involved.

BURGLARIZE HOME

Early Friday morning a thief entered the house of Mr. Thomas Kennedy by prizing open a window and after ransacking the house entered the sleeping apartments of Mr. Kennedy and secured about $12 in cash from a vest hanging in the room. Nothing else was taken.

No clues were found by the police. The thief is evidently very bold and desperate.

M. R. HAINLINE WILL MOVE TO LEXINGTON

The many friends of Mr. M. R. Hainline will learn with sincere regret that he has determined to move to Lexington where he will engage in the same business as he has conducted in Mt. Sterling in the past, with the exception of plumbing. Mr. Hainline has leased a building on Market street and will conduct an up-to-date paint and wall paper store. For the past thirty-seven years he has been engaged in business in this city and is recognized as one of this city's leading business men and it is with sincere regret we learn of his intentions to leave Mt. Sterling but are confident that our loss will be Lexington's gain and we predict for him abundant success in the Blue Grass Capital and heartily recommend him to the people of that city. He expects to leave here about March 15th, and in the meantime is offering his entire business for sale as a whole but in the meantime will close out his stock at greatly reduced prices.
